

Here at Green Things, we want to give you the perfect, one-of-a-kind arrangement. We will expertly plant your chosen plants in what ever container you like, with the addition of top-dressing and decoration! Take a look at the information below, and see an associate if you have any questions, or if you're ready to get started on your unique arrangement!

Cost: The final cost will include the price of the plants, the container (if applicable), any top-dressing or decorations, and a labor fee. If an entire bag of soil is used to complete planting, customers will be charged for the price of the bag. The table below shows labor cost based on container size of each plant to be included in the final arrangement.

You are welcome to bring your own container.

Orders for more than 10 Custom Arrangements will incur an additional fee.
